4th ANNUAL DOG RIVER MUD BOTTOM REVIVAL MUSIC FESTIVAL

About the Music: Headliner, Jimmy Hall of Wet Willie Opening with Yo Jonesy and the Crowned Jewelz

MOBILE, Ala. (February 15, 2018) – For the fourth consecutive year, Dog River Clearwater Revival (DRCR) organizers announce the Dog River Mud Bottom Revival Music Festival – a fun afternoon created to raise awareness and funds that has grown to be known as a family event not to be missed for enjoying great music along the way. The 4th Annual Mud Bottom Revival Music Festival at the Dog Pond is set for a full-moon Sunday, April 29 from 3 to 7 p.m. (gates open at 2 p.m.) with the most popular headliner yet – Mobile's-own Jimmy Hall (of Wet Willie) – Family & Friends, whose members are individually and collectively well-known locally, nationally and internationally. The crowd pleasing, Yo Jonesy and her Crowned Jewelz band will return this year as the event's opening act.

Once again, this family-friendly fundraising event will be held on the private, grassy lot on Dog River fondly called, the Dog Pond, located at 2415 Venetia Road, Mobile, AL. Attendees are invited to bring coolers, picnic blankets and chairs to enjoy an afternoon of live music in the beautiful outdoor setting under the moss-covered oaks. No pets are allowed. Motorboats are not allowed to tie off at property during duration of the event; however, boats may be anchored at the river's edge. There will be food available for purchase from Smokin' Gringos food truck and Cammie's Old Dutch Ice Cream.

Individual tickets may be purchased for $25 through April 22; after this ticket prices increase to $35. Children 10 and under admitted free of charge. Tickets may be purchased online through April 28th at 11:30 PM. Due to popularity of this event and this year's headliner, tickets are expected to sell-out quickly. Sponsorships are available now for this Spring fundraising event. ABOUT THE MUSIC

ABOUT JIMMY HALL

Jimmy Hall was born in Birmingham, Alabama and raised in Mobile by a musical family steeped in gospel tradition.

Jimmy Hall has toured as a vocalist with Jeff Beck's US Tour over the years, as well as, Hank Williams, Jr. According to Jeff Beck's Website, Hall is referred to as "A Southern Boy with Lots of Soul."

Jimmy Hall first gained notoriety as the front man for the band Wet Willie from Mobile, Alabama. His unique brand of R&B-infused rock and roll swagger propelled the group's "Keep On Smilin'" into the Top 10 on the Billboard singles chart in 1974. After five albums with Marcon, Georgia's Capricorn Records, Wet Willie moved to the Epic label in 1977, carrying the singles “Street Corner Serenade” and “Weekend” to the Top 40. As a solo artist, Hall appeared in the Top 40 yet again with “I’m Happy That Love Has Found You” in 1980. He was nominated for a Best Male Vocalist Grammy for his work on Jeff Beck’s 1986 album, “Flash.” His songs have been recorded by Gregg Allman, The Marshall Tucker Band, The Amazing Rhythm Aces, Johnny Russell, and others. Since the 1980s, Hall has been a vocalist, saxophonist, harmonica player and band leader with Hank Williams, Jr. To learn more, visit jimmyhall.com.

ABOUT YO JONESY AND CROWNED JEWELZ

Yolanda V. Jones (aka Yo Jonesy) is a 28-year old singer, song writer, and musician who was born and raised in Mobile, Al. Over the years, Yo Jonesy has perfected the art of bringing to life a diverse mix of pop, rock, blues, R&B, jazz, hip hop, and reggae.

Through her music, she embraces all these styles as a harmonic expression of her life.

Yo Jonesy realized at a young age that music was her passion. She loved mimicking her mother singing soulful songs around the house. Her father put together a gospel band with Yo Jonesy and her brothers when she was just five years old. She was the lead vocalist. Coming from a family of talented musicians on all instruments, she decided to learn the trombone.

She accredits her passion for music to growing up listening to artists such as Sade, Patti Labelle, Bob Marley, Michael Jackson, Lauren Hill, Erykah Badu, Prince, Amy Winehouse, Lenny Kravitz and Nina Simone. Yo Jonesy presently resides in Mobile, and is working to complete her study in music while performing with Crowned Jewelz Band regularly. Her plan is to travel on an independent tour with Crowned Jewelz. When asked about her mission, she responds, “My mission is to spread the L.I.P.: “Live in Peace” message around the globe through my music.” Jonesy’s most recent release is the single “Superwoman Blues” now available on iTunes and all social music sites.
